

A STITZ DREAM.

Buffalo Man Tells of Fast Walk After Term in Canadian Prison.

Canadian Press Despatch.

New York, June 8.—Eugene Stitz, 23 years old, told the officials of the Hebrew Sheltering Home for Immigrants to-day that he had been lured from Buffalo over the Canadian line and interned for nine months in a Canadian detention camp. Stitz, who arrived here last night, declared he walked from Buffalo in 26 days.
