

AIDING ENEMY CHARGED

Two Wetaskiwin Men Placed Under Arrest

WETASKIWIN, Aug. 10.—A sensation was created here yesterday when John Bleiler and E. Hedenstrom were arrested by Sergt. Michel on the charge of aiding and abetting the enemy. They will be taken to Edmonton today to stand trial.

Julius Schroeder was found guilty yesterday by A. S. Rosenroll, J.P., of selling liquor in contravention of the liquor act. As this was the second violation, he was fined $250 and costs, with the warning that the next offence would be punished by imprisonment.
