

ESCAPED GERMAN WILL SUE FOR HIS LUGGAGE

BRUBACHER DOES NOT SEE HOW HOLDING IT HELPS CANADA'S SAFETY.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Kingston, Aug. 31.—The threat is made by Willy Brubacher, the St. Johns, Que., German, who escaped from Fort Henry internment camp, and who is now in Watertown, N. Y., that he will sue the Canadian Government for his luggage, which is still here at the Fort. He says he cannot see how the holding of his personal belongings can contribute to the safety of the Dominion.

VATICAN CONSIDERS ACTION.

May Protest to Germany Over Eviction of French.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Paris, Aug. 31.—The Vatican is considering the action of Germany in compelling the inhabitants of the north of France to work in the fields, according to a statement by Cardinal Gasparri, the Papal Secretary of State, says the Rome correspondent of The Journal. The Cardinal declined, however, to discuss the status of this subject.

Questioned as to the possibility of the resumption of diplomatic relations between France and the Holy See, the Cardinal said the Vatican would be delighted by such an event, but that all would depend upon the French Government, and whether that Government desired it.
