

The idea of putting Germans in Fort Henry on their "honor." There may be honor among thieves, but not among Germans. It is also said that a prophet has no honor in his own country. The Huns have none in any country, including their own. However, if Fort Henry is to be run as a sanitarium there will be more escapes.