

Thirty-three foreigners, mostly Russians and Poles came in on the Athabasca from Fort William they went out on the noon train, their destination is Turbine. They will be employed there on the construction of the power house, being built by the Canadian Copper Co.