

Charles Powers, a Sarnian, who brought over from Port Huron several copies of the New York Staats Zeitung and the Fatherland to be mailed to other persons, was arrested and was fined $5 and cost.