

Mrs. Fenwick Williams, who has just returned from lecturing in the States, was the guest of honor of the New York Women's Press Club at the president's breakfast, held at the Waldorf Astoria last Saturday. Mrs. Williams, who is president of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club, spoke briefly of conditions in the Canadian internment camps, which she had visited, and thanked the audience for their very evident sympathy with and enthusiasm for the Allied cause.
