

Woman With German Accent Barred From Canada

---

Niagara Falls, N. Y., March 16.—Margaret Tobin, forty years old, of Indianapolis, ticketed for Toronto, was refused admission to Canada last night when the woman was found to have a German accent.

Argument for her rejection by Dominion officers is that the woman had no relatives or friends in Canada. The commissioner of charities is caring for the woman pending the arrival of her brother from the west.