

Two Germans named Dosch south east of town have been arrested for using seditious language and sending money to Germany. One was sent to the Banff internment camp and the other is out on bail pending his trial which will be held on May 1st.