

Alien Enemies Allowed Out With a Warning

The Globe (1844-1936); Jun 12, 1917; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 9

Alien Enemies Allowed Out With a Warning

After warning them that their attendance at any meeting that was hostile to the interests of the country, which would be followed by internment, Chief Constable Grasett, Registrar, informed the seventy-four alien enemies arrested on Sunday that they were released from custody on instructions from Ottawa.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.