
FOREIGNERS TO BUILD CHURCHES IN BRANTFORD

RUTHENIANS HAVE SECURED
SITE AND POLES HAVE TAKEN OPTIONS.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Brantford, July 10.—Two new Catholic churches for Brantford are a probability in the near future. The Ruthenians have secured a site on Terrace Hill, while the Poles have taken options on properties in that section, having a good-sized fund on hand for the purpose of buying a site and building. The foreign population in Brantford is large.
