

SUSPECTED HUN SPY IN CANADA INTERNED IN U. S.

By Canadian Press.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 14.

—Alvo von Alvensleben, reputed head of a German spy system in the west, and alleged financial agent of Germany in Canada, is today in the internment camp at Fort Douglas. He was brought to this city yesterday in custody of Department of Justice agents.

Alvensleben declares that he had lost a fortune of several million dollars in this country since the outbreak of the war.
