

STRIKE BREAKERS FROM OTHER SIDE IN POLICE HANDS

Eight Men and One Woman
Caught in G. N. W. Montreal
Trouble.

MANAGER SAYS NONE
HAVE BEEN IMPORTED

Associated Press by Leased Wire.

MONTREAL, Sept. 27.—Charged with a violation of the Alien Labor Law, eight men and one woman, all Americans, appeared before Judge St. Cyr this morning in connection with the strike of the Great North Western company operators.

They pleaded not guilty, were re-manded until Wednesday next and allowed out on $100 bail.

The men gave their names and addresses as follows:—A. J. Davis, Brooklyn, N.K.; J. E. Noseworthy, New York City; N. D. Solomon, New Orleans; S. E. Moore, New Orleans; L. F. Clure, New Orleans; J. J. Hlster, New York; E. V. Cooney, New York, and A. F. Dann, New York. The woman detained is Miss A. J. Knuff, and is believed to come from New York. She fainted last night when notified of the charge that would be laid against her.

The local police are still searching for three more men. The telegraphers' union officials allege that the men and women were sent to Montreal to act as strike-breakers.