LAURIER WOULD STOP CONSCRIPTION, IS STILL STRONG FOR A REFERENDUM

Pledges Himself in Manifesto to Submit M. S. Act to People.

WOULD REMOVE TARIFF INCREASES

Promises Government Control of goods coming from G Food Prices and Stoppage of Profiteering.

AND DUTY-FREE FARM IMPLEMENTS

For the Rest He Condemns Elections Act and C.N.R. Legislation.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has issued his manifesto, which is as follows :

"A consultation of the people at short and regular periods is the right of a free people. The constitution provides accordingly for a general election every five years. It is undeniable that there has existed a strong desire in the community to avoid an election during the war.

"An impression prevails that had I accepted the invitation of the Prime Minister to join his Government a rew extension would have been possible. This impression is absolutely erroneous, the fact being that the invitation extended to me was coupled with the stipulation that the Coallnon Government would pass a contemption measure and then appeal to the country, thus making an election "State Commonplaces."

"The Government, as recently reconstructed, the Union Government, so-caned, is now appealing to the constructed, the Union Government, ernment have announced questions of tariff legislatic country for support. Six members relegated to after the war, et the Liberal party, some of them Cose personal friends, have consented duction is one of Canada's and the program which they nas already been members of the Administhe Libertan included in influencing their colleagues to the adoption of measures which they deemed essentiate or 71% per cent, in our the welfare of the country at all st of the articles in the Govcommonplaces extracted from the abilities as respects common Conservative program of 1911, for-all countries other than t rnment had afforded them

Strong Immigration Policy. particular item is deserving particular item is deserving tion. 'A strong and progres-icy of immigration' is pro-This will be, perhaps, the apertant question after the burdens which are now be-has been placed upon naturalized citi-

"An article of the program of the Government speaks of the develop-ment of the transportation facilities Government speaks of the development of the transportation facilities, but in vague though rather ambitious terms. No mention is made of the acquisition of the Canadian Northern Railway; yet this subject was not exhausted by the legislation of last session, and it will be one of the most important duties of the next Parliament again to review it.

"One feature of the Act of the last session is that the Government becomes the owner of the stock of the company, of the nominal value of "As far back as the month of company, of the nominal value of sixty million deliars. There never was a deliar paid on that stock. Ex-perts employed by the Government to appraise the value of the whole en-terprise, men of acknowledged ability experience, themselves have re orted that the stock of the company ported that the stock of the con-has no value whatever.

"Yet the Government has taken authority to appoint a board of arbi-terior to give a value to that proratherity to appoint a board of sevi-trators to give a value to that pro-perty, which their experts have de-clared absolutely without value. "The Opposition asked that the re-board of the subtratement with terms."

The Opposition assect that the report of the arbitrators, whatever it might be, should be laid before Parliament for approval. Though this motion was rejected it is the right of the people to dealers that the case the people to declare that the case so people to declare that the case should not have been finally closed by the action of a moribund Parlia-ment, but that the whole matter should be reported to and adjudicated upon by the new Parliament.

Tackle Economic Problems. "It was natural to expect that the reconstructed Government would give very serious attention to the economic situation of the country, which is admittedly critical. There is no allusion to it except the vague promise of 'effective measures to prevent excessive profits, to prohibit hoarding and to prevent combination for the increase of prices, and thus reduce the high cest of living.'

The economic problems have to be grappled with at once, in no such vague general terms, but in vigorous and concrete proposals.

Ever-Sagring Prices. teconstructed Government would give is to put a stop to profiteering on war supplies. The Government has delige and to prevent combination for the increase of prices, and thus reduce the high cost of living."

The economic problems have to be grappled with at once, in no such vasue general terms, but in vigorous and concrete proposals.

Ever-Soaring Prices.

"The prices of all commodities have been steadily rising since the beginning of the war. The daily provisioning of the family table is from day to day becoming a more and more alarming problem for all classes of waspe-carners and for all people of small and even moderate incomes. It is no answer to say that this is the natural consequence of the war. When it is considered that the price of bread and bacon—to speak only of these two commodities—is higher here in Canada than in the United of the say of the production of war materials, as has been done in Great Britain, and run them on the principle of reasonable legitimate profit.

"I believe that one of the best woold conscription follow the edoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Sagain and adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and adoption of our policy. Again and is adoption of our policy. Again and is the policy. Again and is the country war is policy. The country war is policy. The factories which are engage

What Laurier Promises

Not to proceed farther under provisions of Military Service Act until people have has opposite thy to pronounce on it by a referendum, but to submit Act to people a make further effort at voluntary recruiting. To remove the 5 ent, tariff increase made since war began on witain and the 71/2 per cent. increase on goods from outside Great 1 To remove dutigricultural implements and "other essentials. to bring food-producing factories under Govad prices; if necessary to commandeer.

in war supplies and to make profiteers disgorge ry he would not hesitate to control factories.

of reflitting the returned soldier for civilian life actuding business men, labor representatives, and

Kingdom, this of itself is proof sufficlent that the prices here are inflat-ed by methods with are in no way How Indeed

To take drastic

Attention to him

Report and "ac.

To take up the and to look after w

To form Cabin

agriculturists.

Would Reform Tariff.

"No measure to reduce the cost of iving can be effective unless and un-il the tariff is reformed and its presare removed from those commodities ntal reform there is not a the Government manifesto. Indeed members of the present Gov-

bear unfairly and unduly on existing Remove Implement Duties.

agricultural production reform of the tariff for the of helping Canadian produc and relieving the Canadian consume ould also be an object of my ad-

Will Take Up C. N. R.

"An article of the program of the execution of the development speaks of the development."

We will take up C. N. R.

food-producing factories allowing for a fair interest on investment and fair and reasonable net profits, so that

"As far back as the month of February last an order-in-Council was passed, by which it was enacted was passed, by which it was chatevathat 'with a view to insure to publishers of Canadian newspapers news print paper at reasonable prices,' the Minister of Customs was 'authorized and empowered to fix the quantity and price of news print in sheets and rolls to be furnished by the manufacturers to the publishers the manufacturers to the publishers in Canada.

"By virtue of this 'order' the Government has compelled manufacturers of print paper, against the ers of print paper, against the latter's protest, to supply publishers and newspapers at a price which it itself fixed as reasonable. It it could thus reduce the price of paper to consumers of paper, why did it stop there? Why should the government not have reduced to the hundreds of thousands of anxious housewives and hereadwinners the prices of all those breadwinners the prices of all those commodities which made the ever-increasing cost of living one of the most insistent and dangerous of all the problems that now confront us.

Control Factories, Stop Profiteering. "One of the most important con-tributions towards winning the war is to put a stop to profiteering on war supplies. The Government has de-upon the acquisition of the C.N.R.

etc., for the benefit of the country How Opposition Helped.

"It cannot be said too often that this war could not have been avoided by the allies, and that it is a contest for the very existence of civiliza-tion. Of this the entrance of the United States into the conflict is fur-assented to all its war measures, exthan helpful. As to Compulsion duced a bill to make military ser vice compulsory. found it impossible to agree asked how this view is o asked how this view is consistent with my oft-expressed determination "Conscription-Complete Surprise."

'Very different was the introduccated the very idea of conscription Here is what it said in a carefully reasoned editorial:

"The Globe, in its editorial columns, has consistently pointed out real Daily Mail, and other journals that have absolutely no sympathy that have absolutely no sympathy with the Liberal party:
"Even as late as December 27, 1916, The Globe repeated its warnings against any effort to force Canadians into the ranks, and summed up public opinion thus: 'Trade unionists are found opposing conscription, and the leading opponents of every manifestation of democracy are favoring the system.'

Assurance On the Subject. "No less emphatic had been the language of the Government. At the beginning of the session of 1916, in answer to my inquiry whether the promise recently made by the Prime Minister of enlisting 500,000 men meant conscription, he answered in these words:

"'My Right Honorable friend has alluded to conscription—to the idea in this country or elsewhere that there may be conscription in Canada. In speaking in the first two or three months of this war I made it clear to the people of Canada that we did not propose conscription. I repeathat announcement to-day with em "Equally emphatic and unqualified were my own declarations on the subject. Throughout the whole cam-paign of 1910 and 1911 I may recall paign of 1910 and 1911 I may recall that the National-Conservative alliance, which opposed the naval policy of the Liberal Government of that time, asserted that such a policy meant conscription. Meeting the assertion, I gave the public frequent assurance that under no circumstances would conscription follow the adoption of our policy. Again and again after the outbreak of the present war I insisted that conscription met with universal acceptance, even in the party to which I belong, but even yet I hold that to coerce when persuasion has not been attempted is not sound policy, and in this I appeal to the impartial judgment of all Still Wants Referendum.

"In combatting the policy of con-scription all that I asked was that a measure of such moment should not be enforced by Parliament without an appeal to the people. I supported a referendum for the reason that the referendum is the most advanced and he most modern method of tion of the people, without the com-plications inseparable from a gen-eral election. A referendum had also been asked on this very question by organized Labor. My request was appeal with great confidence to the fair judgment of the country that he introduction of conscription this juncture and in the manner above described was a grave error, if it is remembered that the supreme should have been and still should be to bring all classes of the community to hearty co-operation in the task which we assumed.

Wealth Not Conscripted. "A fundamental objection to the Government's policy of conscription is that it conscripts human life only and that it conscripts administration and that it does not attempt to conscript wealth, resources, or the services of any persons other than those who come winin the age limit prescribed by the Military Service Act. vices and to risk his life in his coun midst, are the next most deserving of eern of the State will. I believe, bring course to conscription. If returned to power I should adopt such a policy.

Would Seek Ablest Men. "My first duty will be to seek out the ablest men of the country, men of organizing capacity as well as men representative of all classes in he community, and invite them, irrespective of what it may involve in the way of sacrifice of their personal interests, to join with me in the for-mation of a Cabinet whose first oband resources necessary to insure the enable Canada to continue to end to do her splendid part to Suspend M. S. Act.

'As to the present Military Service Act, my policy will be not to proceed farther under its provisions until the people have an opportunity to pronounce upon it by way of a re-ferendum. I pledge myself to forthwith submit the Act to the people, and with my followers to carry out the wishes of the majority of the nation as thus expressed.

Voluntary Recruiting Appeal.

"I would at the same time organize and carry out a strong appeal for voluntary recruiting. It is a fact that cannot be denied that the voluntary system, especially in Quebec, did not get a fair trial, and a fair enthusiasm. eliminate from our political life one of its most harrowing problems, as no loyal Canadian can view without the gravest apprehension a dispirited Canada at this critical hour of our "To these views it is no answer to sive example. Australia re-conscription and Australia did fight under the voluntary system.

Would Organize Nation.

ingly apparent the necessity of organsupply these imperative requirements. What is needed is vigorous lefforts to further an unlimited production. To meet this existing need I am prepared, in addition to the what further steps may be necessary to increase double and quadruple the output of all that may be necessary for marching and fighting armies.

Enlisting in Quebec.

"Mr. Crothers, Minister speaking read in source than Canada to increase double and quadruple the output of all that may be necessary for marching and fighting armies.

Enlisting in Quebec.

"This Act, known as the War-times Election Act, is a blot upon every instinct of justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Britain never were, and are not now, denied their rights of citizenship.

"It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Britain never were, and are not now, and the war-times of justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Britain never were, and are not now, and the war-times of justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise members from ancient times, in English history have been exempt from initiative service, and who in Great of Justice, honesty and fair play. It takes away the franchise from certain denominations whose mem speaking recently at St. Thomas, decleared that 'if Quebec had done her duty as the other Provinces we should never have required the Mili-tary Service Act.

"If enlisting in Quebec was not on a par with enlisting in the other Provinces, on whom does the responsibility rest? On whom but the Borden Government, whose Quebec members openly, strenuously and persistently preached the Nationalist doctrine of 'No participation by Canada in Imperial wars outside her own terri-The Election of 1911.

"That doctrine, first put forth in the riding of Drummond-Arthabasca in the autumn of 1910 by the whole Nationalist body, including two of the present Quebec Ministers, won the election for them. In the general elections of 1911, reciprocity in Que-bec was not the main issue; the main issue was the naval policy of the late Administration, which was bitterly assailed by the same men on the same doctrine of 'No participation by Canada in Imperial wars outside her territory.' And such doctrine taught territory.' And such doctrine, taught on the hustings, circulated by the Na-tionalist press at the expense of the Conservative organization, had a powerful influence in educating the public against the participation by Canada in Imperial wars outside her Canada in Imperial wars outside her territory. The first result was at the polls, when the Liberals won 38 seats and the Conservative and Nationalist alliance won 27, the popular vote being even more evenly divided, the Liberals polling 164,221 votes and the Conservative - Nationalist alliance 159,299. The second result was when the war breke out and a call was made by the Government for volunteers. They reaped what they had sown. There was one-half of the Province which they had educated to reject such an appeal.

Care of Returned Soldiers.

ty years. "The greatest service that can be rendered the brave men who have first claim upon our gratitude and Commodore Tyrwhitt's locky black cat. The cat lives in his flagship and ympathy is to replace them in civil time, and with all doors wide open ife. How to do that in the way best for errors, confusion and frauds. calculated to enable each man to beif possible self-sustaining that will call for the disp of all that is noblest and best in the Canadian people.

"In a vast number of cases re-edu-

"In a vast number of cases resetute cation and technical training will be necessary. In these cases patience and generosity on the part of the State, combined with sympathetic understanding, practical experience and scientific knowledge on the part of those whom the State will call in to aid its efforts, will go a long way toward helping the returned soldier overcome the handicaps of war tion of every man who has been on service overseas. But there is an-other duty devolving upon us, the discharge of which should precede emphasize its policy that the nation dium of public benevolence or char-ity. Mr. Copp, member for West-moreland, at the last session of Parliament, during the consideration the Military Service Bill, moved this thoughtful resolution:

Necessity for Action. "That the further consideration of this bill be deferred until such adequate provision has been made the dependents of soldiers enlisted for overseas as will remove the ne-cessity for raising money by public subscription.

subscription."
"The resolution was opposed by the Government and the motion for its adoption was defeated. But the necessity for action still exists, and prompt action must be taken to put the soldiers and their dependents and excitement of science and to secure that acqui-escence in a verdict which should be escence in a vertict which should be the last word on all questions sub-mitted to the people, a general elec-tion should be an appeal to the elec-torate such as it exists under the

Condemns Election Act. "The Government has discarded

that fundamental principle of the institutions of a free people. It has designedly altered the sanctity of the designedly aftered the sanctive of franchise; by choking discussion, by ruthlessly using the closure it has deliberately manufactured a franchise with which it hopes to win a victory at the polls, a passing victory for itself, a permanent injury to the

"It takes away the franchise from men whom we invited to this country, to whom we promised all the rights and privileges of our citizenship, who trusted in our promises and who became under our laws British subjects and Canadian citizens. They are thus humiliated and treated with contempt under the pretence that being born in enemy countries, in Germany and Austria, they might be biased in favor of their native country and against their native country and against their native country. The assumption is false in theory and might easily be so demonstrated. It is sufficient to observe that it is also false in fact. There has not been any current of emigration from Germany to Canada during the last twenty years, and as to Austria, almost the total number, perhaps nine-tenths of the emigrants to Austria, aimost the total number, perhaps nine-tenths of the emigrants from that country, were not from Austria proper, but from those Slav Provinces held by force by Austria, and whose sympathies are strong and deep against her, and for the allies
"Women Are Electors." "It gives the franchise to some wo men and denies it to others. All those whose privilege it is to have near relatives amongst the soldiers will be actives amongst the soldiers will be volters. The right will be refused to all those not so privileged, though their hearts are just as strong in the their hearts are just as strong in the cause, and though they have worked incessantly for it. Moreover, in five Provinces of the Dominion—namely, Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia—women have been admitted to the franchise. According to the terms of the Dominion law, which no sophistory can blur, being electors in the Province, women are electors in the Dominion. The Act of last session minion. The Act of last session snatches away that right from them. "The Act is vicious in principle and is equally vicious in its enacting disposition. We have in most of the disposition. We have in most of the Provinces of the Dominion a regular system of preparing the voters lists, and against that system no complaint has been heard during the last twen by years. That system is also cas aside, and lists are to be prepared by Liberals in Union Government.

"The Liberal members of the re-constructed Government have put mantle of their respectability upon this nefarious Act, as well as upor protested, and every sense of justice and right to discourage and to stifle the free expression of the will of the people and to make Parliamentary ment a mere name without the rea Appeals for Candidates.

"A bold attempt is being made t elimination duty to appeal to all the friends political freedom in every cons tuency to organize at once in order to defeat such a conspiracy. Let the masses unite and select their own standard-bearers. The Laurier Cabinet.

"Should I be called upon to form

"Should I be called upon to in a Government I would hope to in clude in it representatives of buness, of labor and of agriculture, the mea whose sole object in dealin with the affairs of the country wil the winning of the war. It can on be done by honest agreemen amongst all the tion it is my desire that the commo people should have expressing themselve every constituency candidates repre sentative of this policy may be nom inated so that the people can vot for them. Whatever Verdict May Be.

"These considerations I now place before my fellow-countrymen of all creeds and of all origins for their appreciation and judgment. deemed it my duty more the perhaps in the course of the unity of the nation, to avoid t unfortunately again looming up dan and le vation and sufferings, which should not exist in a country so richly en-dowed by nature as our country. Whatever may be the verdict at the polls I will accept it, neither elated by victory nor downhearted by de-feat."

FOE'S RETREAT MARKS END OF LONG BATTLE

Fight for the Ladies' Road Lasted Almost Continuously for Six Months.

London, Nov. 5.—Reuter's correspondent at French headquarters telegraphed yesterday:

"The German retreat from the Chemin-des-Dames marks the end of one of the great battles of the war. It began on April 19, when the French reached the crest overlooking the former German position down to the banks of the Aisne down to the banks of the Alshe and the enemy communications in the Alllette valley. It ended yesterday after six months of almost continuous fighting. It lasted longer and cost more lives than the battle of Verdun.

"The Germans will, of course, say they abandoned the ground volunting order to husband their cine October 1988 of the course, say they are the course, say they are the course, say they are the course of the course tarily in order to husband their men. The truth is that since Oc-tober 23, when the Zouaves stormed Malmaison fort the Germans lost and abandoned twenty miles of the Hindenburg line.

"To retain this section of the front, stretching from Laffaux to Craonne, the Germans provoked over twenty battles and almost as many times they accepted battle forced on them by the French. They engaged in scores of minor operations and suffered casualties to be appropriately by the hundreds of those numbered by the hundreds of thou-Judge Galt Leaves for Montreal.

Winnipeg, Nov. 5.—Justice Galt left on Saturday for Montreal to consult, at the suggestion of local physicians, with a noted eye specialist.