

AUSTRIAN GOING BACK TO GET PAPERS SIGNED

The charge against Jules Ataman, Austrian, residing in Hull, of breaking the parole regulations governing alien enemies in Canada, was withdrawn in Police Court this morning. The charge was laid because some time ago Ataman, who was in Montreal for a while, left that city and came to Ottawa without first having the Montreal police chief endorse his parole papers. Ataman has agreed to go back to Montreal at his own expense and have the police chief there endorse his papers now.
