

The twenty-one alien enemy residents who openly rejoiced in the recent German advance have been sent to an internment camp. They should now be sadder if not wiser men. Incidentally, their quick apprehension shows that the authorities are alive to their duties in the matter of watching aliens.