

GERMANS TALKED SEDITION.

VERNON, June 6.—Joseph Lee was found guilty of uttering seditious language by a jury today at the assizes before Chief Justice Hunter. Lee is a German prisoner in the internment camp here, and was a resident of Burnaby for several years before he was confined. His offence occurred at the camp last October, when he spoke of the King and British nation in language of an unprintable character.