

BALAN PAYS $1,000 FINE; KOSTENUICK HELD IN JAIL

Mike Kostenuick, Austrian, who was convicted in city police court Friday of making seditious utterances, is in the provincial jail today, police report, pending payment of the $1,000 fine imposed on him by Magistrate MacDonald.

Nick Balan, who was convicted in the same court Thursday on a similar charge, paid his $1,000 fine Friday and has been released under surveillance. He is a grocer and lives at 448 King st.

If Kostenuick, who lives at 255 Austin st., fails to produce the money demanded of him, he will begin serving the one-year term provided in the sentence as an alternative.

Both men have declared intentions of carrying their cases to the Manitoba court of appeals.
