

An Alien Enemy!

So Toronto City Council Refuses to Assist 8-Weeks-Old Baby.

TORONTO, Aug. 3.—Under an order recently passed by the City Council the authorities at the city hall have decided that an eight weeks old baby, born of Austrian parents, is an alien enemy, and it has been denied civic assistance at one of the hospitals. A city official has undertaken to pay for the infant for two days to see if in the meantime some way out of the difficulty cannot be found.
