Nine Welland Men Warned to Go Back to Work or Be Fined.

Welland, Ont., Aug. 21.—Nine men were charged in the Police Court with unlawfully quitting their jobs at the Canada Forge, and the foreman was charged with attempting to incite a strike and being an alien, with a claim that he should be interned. They were given instructions that they must go to work or be fined under the Loafing Act, and the foreman received a stern warning.
