

IMPORTANT DUTIES CONFRONT MR. CAHAN

Director of Public Safety's Department to be Organ- ized at Once

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—Details of the order in Council providing for the establishment of a public safety branch of the Department of Justice made available to-day, show that Mr. C. H. Cahan, Director of Public Safety, will have charge of the administration of the laws and regulations for preserving public order within the Dominion. Under the authority of the War Measures Act it will be the duty of the director to administer regulations respecting aliens, unlawful publications and associations, assemblies or meetings and orders or regulations designed to suppress or extirpate enemy, revolutionary or seditious propaganda, espionage or malevolent activity. Provision is made for the appointment of the necessary staff, the expense to be charged to the war appropriation. The organization of the new department will be commenced without delay.

Famous British Educators to Tour United States

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

An Atlantic Port, Oct. 9.—Five famous British educators arrived here to-day to be guests of the Council of National Defense on a tour of the country. The purpose of their visit is to seek means of securing closer co-operation between American and British educational institutions.

The party includes Sir Henry Jones, professor of moral philosophy at the University of Glasgow; Dr. Arthur Everett Shipley, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge; Sir Henry Alexander Miers, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Manchester; Dr. John Joly, professor of geology and mineralogy in the University of Dublin, and the Rev. Edward Mewburn Walker, senior tutor of Queen's College, Oxford.

The tour will take the party as far west as St. Louis and south to New Orleans.
