

DESERTION IS CHARGED.

Pte. A. N. White Faces Court-Martial in Toronto To-day.

On a charge of desertion Pte. A. N. White of the 2nd Canadian Garrison Regiment was tried by district court-martial at the Armouries this morning. The court was presided over by Lt.-Col. W. P. Butcher, and Lt.-Col. J. A. MacDonald was judge advocate.

White, according to the military authorities, was warned for a draft to do guard duty at ~~Kapuskasing~~ internment camp. He reported to the draft and was proceeding to his destination when he escaped from the train.