

Says Disloyal Alien Enemies Should Be Punished Severely

Alien enemies who had openly declared their sympathy with the German powers should be dealt with severely, Lieut. J. W. Milton, M.L.A., for Assiniboia declared Sunday afternoon at Grace church Forum.

"How are we going to decide whether a man was disloyal during the war?" Lieut. Wilton asked.

"We cannot say that because he had not enlisted he was disloyal," Lieut. Wilton asserted. "Thousands of Canadian-born are guilty of the same offense."

"When the time comes, Canada must distinguish between, the man who had become a naturalized British subject, who had lived here a long time and who had during the war carried on the same as other patriotic citizens, and the man who had openly declared his sympathy toward the German aim," Lieut. Wilton asserted.
