

WINNIPEG JUDGE INTERNS ALIENS; CANNOT DEPORT

WINNIPEG, May 13.--Three aliens, Wasył Ptasznski, Nick Shotniski and Jete Getyl, brought before Judge Myers this morning by the Great War Veterans Association as a test for deportation were interned by order of the judge. Judge Myers stated that he had no jurisdiction in ordering their deportation, but that he would order them to be interned. This he stated would be done throughout Canada and it would then be up to the military authorities to decide whether they would be deported or not. They were then handed over to officers of the R.N.W.M.P., who will see to their treatment.
