

ALIEN INVESTIGATION BOARD TO CONTINUE

The Alien Enemy Investigation board, 185 Lombard st., did not go out of business today, as scheduled. Its officers have received word to "carry on" until some definite plan is formulated for handling alien enemies in future. A month ago orders were issued to demobilize the board at the end of this month, but Great War Veterans appealed and were granted a stay of the order.