

TOTAL OF 200 DRAFT EVADERS APPREHENDED THROUGH ALIEN BOARD

The alien enemy investigation board turned over 200 proved draft evaders to the Royal North West Mounted Police during the time it operated, R. J. Mansfield, secretary, said today.

Great War Veterans never again will have the opportunity of solving the alien question now that the alien enemy investigation board has been closed, according to Mr. Mansfield.

"Great War Veterans have been defeated on the enemy alien issue," he said. "The provincial command was asleep at the switch when it did not press the point with the federal authorities. There will be trouble between aliens and soldiers next winter, now that the board is closed."
