Alien Heading for Austria Well
Supplied With Money—Had Letters From
Dr. Adler.

MONTREAL, Oct. 10.—Arrested at the Windsor Hotel here, where they had registered as Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, on the eve of embarking for Great Britain, Count Maximilian Egon Polocki, was yesterday sent up to Kapuskasing interment camp, while a woman who was travelling with him, was sent back to New York, whence the two had come to Montreal.

Men on the staff of Captain J. Carter, registrar of alien enemies, found on the person of the count incriminating papers. They were from Dr. Frederick Adler, Spartacan leader in Vienna, commenting on the "wonderful work" the count's mother was doing in Southern Europe, together with a story of Rosa Luxemburg and Karl Liebknecht. Polocki was travelling incognito as James Dunn, and his passport showed him to be a British subject and general manager of a big corporation.

When arrested the couple had letters of credit on them for $48,000 and cash $3,673, besides jewelry worth $5,000. The arrest was made in virtue of the "Defensé of Canada Act, 1914."
