

AUSTRIANS DETAINED

The Globe (1844-1936); Sep 4, 1914; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 6

AUSTRIANS DETAINED.

Twelve Austrian reservists, who, it is supposed, were endeavoring to leave the city for the front, were arrested yesterday. They passed through the Union Station at 1.50 p. m., under an armed military guard. It was understood that the prisoners were being taken to Fort Henry.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.