

Holiday shopping for your parents

(NC)—It's holiday shopping season, and you're almost done. There are just a couple of more gifts to buy, and you've been dreading them. That's right, you're shopping for your parents. They haven't been very helpful either – all they've told you they want is grandchildren. Editors from RedFlagDeals.com, Canada's largest deals and shopping website, are here to help with some ideas for parent-appropriate gifts:

Good for Mom and Dad

- A gift certificate to your parents' favourite restaurant.
- Spontaneous quality time – show up unannounced and take your parents out to a restaurant.
- A GPS device. Go for a model that is simple and easy to operate.

Good for Dad

- A multi-tool. Dads like their gadgets. Moms like gadgets that don't fill up two rooms in a house. Everyone wins.

• Game tickets to your dad's sports team of choice.

• A sampling pack from a local brewery. If you're the favourite son or daughter, you might complement this with a pack of steaks.

Good for Mom

• A nice perfume. Even if she doesn't use it often, a nice luxury gift will make her feel special.

• A gift certificate to a day spa. She'll feel pampered, and she'll get away from having to hear about your dad's new multi-tool.

• A digital picture frame. Preload this with family photos, including some embarrassing child photos that she loves. Your feelings on the photos are irrelevant.

It can take some creativity, but giving something back to your parents is more than worth the effort. More holiday shopping ideas and ways to save money can be found online at RedFlagDeals.com.

Did you know?

"It's a Wonderful Life" appears on TV more often than any other holiday movie. Rudolph" was actually created by Montgomery Ward in the late 1930's for a holiday promotion. The rest is history.

Reconnaissance, restitution et réconciliation

Lors des premières activités nationales d'internement au Canada en 1914-1920, des milliers d'hommes, de femmes et d'enfants ont été stigmatisés comme étant des « ennemis étrangers ». Plusieurs furent emprisonnés. Dépourvus du peu de richesses qu'ils possédaient, forcés d'effectuer des travaux difficiles dans l'arrière-pays du Canada, ils ont également été privés de leurs droits et soumis à d'autres censures sanctionnées par l'état – non pas à cause de quelque chose qu'ils avaient fait, mais uniquement à cause de l'endroit d'où ils venaient et de qui ils étaient.

En mai 2008, des représentants de la communauté ukrainienne du Canada ont conclu un accord avec le gouvernement du Canada qui a mené à la création d'un fonds de dotation pour financer des projets commémoratifs, éducatifs, académiques et culturels ayant pour but de rappeler à tous les Canadiens cet épisode dans l'histoire de notre pays.

Recognition, Restitution & Reconciliation

During Canada's first national internment operations of 1914-1920 thousands of men, women and children were branded as 'enemy aliens.' Many were imprisoned. Stripped of what little wealth they had, forced to do heavy labour in Canada's hinterlands, they were also disenfranchised and subjected to other state sanctioned censures – not because of anything they had done but only because of where they had come from, who they were.

In May 2008 representatives of the Ukrainian Canadian community reached an agreement with the Government of Canada providing for the creation of an endowment fund to support commemorative, educational, scholarly and cultural projects intended to remind all Canadians of this episode in our nation's history.
