

TORONTO CAVALRY READY

Mounted Units Prepared to Respond as Soon as Call Comes.

Though no word has been received in regard to cavalry for the second contingent, Toronto's two mounted infantry units are making every preparation.

The 9th Mississauga Horse have 258 men encamped at the Exhibition grounds, and on garrison duty at Stanley Barracks, all of whom are sworn in to serve abroad if necessary.

The men stationed at Stanley Barracks have 30 German and Austrian prisoners to guard. 22 arrived from Niagara Falls yesterday.

The Governor - General's Body Guard are sending 26 more men to camp at Aurora to-day, making the total 175 troopers in uniform and 40 horses which come up to the requirements of the Imperial army. The unit swore in 40 men for active service last night. The strength of the regiment is now 549, or up to the war footing.

40 men were taken on for active service by the 2nd Field Company, Canadian Engineers, last night. At Stanley Barracks they have been digging trenches with shelters, throwing up field works, setting up wire entanglements and planting mines. Arrangements have been made for bayonet instruction by Mr. Casey Williams, sergeant-instructor, at the University of Toronto.

Recruits of several regiments—the Queen's Own Cadets, and the Osgoode Hall Rifle Association, drilled at the Armouries last night.
