

The police made a raid on the Turkish colony at Brantford and secured 125 Turks, who were taken to be removed to Toronto as military prisoners at the earliest opportunity.