

Registers as John Bull.

An Austrian registering at the alien registration office in Toronto has assumed the name of John Bull, presumably with the object of recording his "British" sentiments. Many of the aliens have changed their names in this way; none of them, however, has yet adopted the name of Jack Canuck.