

Paul Jockel Is Freed.

Paul Jockel, who has been detained at Stanley Barracks since October, has been released on an order from the Alien Registration Bureau. Jockel's internment followed his failure to register and because he was found at Niagara Falls. The reason given for his release is that he has steady work here and has agreed to observe all the regulations regarding aliens.