

All the Austrians, Hungarians and Austrian Poles living in Guelph were rounded up and sent to the detention camp at Toronto. They were out of work, penniless and hungry.