

TWO AUSTRIANS CAUGHT BY POLICE

Claimed to be Russians and
Had Failed to Report
Since July

William Kobus and Alexander Konbus, two Austrians, were arrested on Saturday by Detectives McConnell and Strohme for not having reported since last July. They both claimed they were Russians, but registration cards found on them showed they were Austrians. They will be taken before Chief Constable Grasett, Registrar of Alien Enemies, to-day and in all probability will be interned.
