

A special train on Sunday brought in eighty more alien prisoners from the coast for the local internment camp. This brings the number now interned here up to about four hundred and thirty. It is expected that about 100 of these will leave shortly for Monashee to engage in work on the road to Edgewood.