

The internment camp at Monashee is now practically closed down, most of the soldiers and prisoners having returned to Vernon, from which place the latter have been sent to Mara.