

Reports are current in Seattle of the operation of certain gasoline launches between Victoria, Vancouver, the San Juan Islands and Puget Sound, to carry German and Austrian reservists out of British Columbia.