

WILL CLOSE TWO CAMPS

Few Aliens Now at Banff or Lethbridge

(Special to The Gazette.)

Ottawa, October 19.—Two of the internment camps established in the west during the early months of the war will probably be closed this winter. These are the camps at Lethbridge, Alberta, and at Banff. The number of aliens interned in these camps has been reduced greatly, and the men still there will be removed to other camps.