

Police Court.

Lung Wong, a local celestial appeared in police court this morning before Magistrate Irwin charged with disturbing the peace by peeping into people's windows. He was soaked $5 and costs. A. Collins, an idler, was warned to get a job. Mike Dudas, father and son, Mike Chollak and John Chollak, aliens who neglected to report, were all fined. It cost A. Barnsley six and costs for cutting corners at a street intersection while driving his motor car.