

ALIEN ENEMY

FAILED TO REPORT

A disreputable character is at present an inmate in the cell of the provincial police in the person of Mareon Anrychuck, who is awaiting conveyance to the provincial jail on a sentence of two months inflicted on him by Mr. Nesbitt, J.P., of Coalhurst, for failing to report in that he was of alien enemy nationality and also for begging. Prisoner was arrested by Constable McWilliams, of the A.P.P.

The A.P.P. have also under arrest Paul Sienko, who will be sent to Coalhurst for trial on the alleged charge of assaulting his wife.
