

A. Kalomick and J. Martin, of the Alien Investigation board, left Thursday for Brandon to make arrangements for the sessions of the board to start there at the end of this month. They will get the aliens in line so that they can register with as little delay as possible.