

Austrians Rush to Naturalize.—The recent decision of the Transcona council to employ only Britishers or naturalized Britishers on the work in the municipality has resulted in a large number of Austrians flocking to Police Magistrate Andrew, of that municipality, and in that official stating that he cannot grant so many applications. There is a slight feeling of antagonism against the Austrians in Transcona, the people holding that the British and Canadian born should have the preference.