

A CANADIAN RIGHT

The exercise of the ballot in Canada is one of the privileges and rights of Canadian citizens.

Yet we find on the voters' lists of this city the names of from four to five thousand aliens. We are taking the estimate of men in official positions in our city.

Surely with a City Council, a Rate-payers' League, the Canadian Club, and kindred organizations, existing for the protection of Canadian rights, it will be possible to devise some means between now and election day, to see that none but Canadian ballots are slipped into the boxes.

And before the civic elections of

and the new council will impress upon the Roblin Government the need for radical amendments to our municipal law, so that hereafter we shall have Canadian lists, and not the present Canadian-Alien combination lists, under the designation of the "Electors of Winnipeg."
