

7,000 AS NOON STRUCK

Just as the clock struck noon, the 7,000th alien applied to H. H. Crofts, registrar, to have his name added to the list of enemies of the country. One or two more were in waiting but they could not be accommodated until after the recess. So far nothing but Germans and Austrians have registered, the majority of them being Austrians.