

Will Help Unemployed.—"The city will afford temporary relief to the hungry unemployed of Winnipeg, and the provincial government will stand half the cost," said Mayor Waugh Saturday, at the conclusion of a conference held between his worship and the provincial cabinet. The mayor announced that another conference between city and railway officials will be held at the parliament buildings this morning, in order to ascertain the plans, if any, which the railways have made in providing work for the unemployed.