

“ Germans Talked Too Much.—Three Germans who had talked too much about the virtue of the kaiser's policy and country have been sent to the detention camp at Brandon. One came from the G.T. railway shops at Transcona, another from a Winnipeg jewellery shop and the third from the dining car system of one of the railways. All had exulted over the sinking of the Lusitania.