

Registration Office Will Remain Open

Rumors circulated for several days to the effect the alien registration office, Colony street, is to be closed, are emphatically denied by officials of the intelligence department today. This is claimed to be the busiest office in Canada owing to the large number of foreigners in Winnipeg and vicinity. Several alien registration offices in other parts of Canada, where there was but little business to be done, have closed and the duties are now being attended by the police.