

Enemy aliens in Manitoba have been sending money from that province through Holland to their friends in Germany. Part of this money is probably finding its way into the government coffers at Berlin to assist, so far as it may, in the prosecution of the war. And those aliens are some of the people from whom, it has been said, the franchise ought not to be have been taken!