

INTERN HEADINGLY MAN FOR WRITING TO ENEMY

Officials of the Military Intelligence department secured evidence that Otto Koenishbaur, a German working on a farm near Headingly, had been corresponding with the enemy. He was placed under arrest and ordered today to be interned at Kapus Kasing, Ont., for the duration of the war.

Military authorities are on the alert for Germans who are corresponding with their country by way of Sweden, Switzerland, Holland and Norway. Several caught have disappeared from their surroundings to spend the rest of the time that the war lasts in some internment camp.
